

Daphne Hall Biography

Daphne Hall is Senior Vice President of College Access Programs for EducationQuest Foundation.

Ms. Hall oversees EducationQuest's college planning offices in Kearney, Lincoln and Omaha, Neb., the organization's statewide college planning services, and college access efforts for middle schools. She also oversees outreach services for community agencies statewide.

Ms. Hall's previous experience includes seven years as a marketing coordinator and regional marketing director with Nelnet in Lincoln, Neb., and three years in college admissions and financial aid at Doane College in Crete, Neb.

Ms. Hall is a member of the Nebraska Wesleyan Board of Governors where she serves on the Executive Committee, Student Affairs Committee (chair) and Enrollment and Marketing Committee. She was also on the University Alumni Council serving as president from 2009-2013 and received the Wesleyan Alumni Loyalty award in 2016. She is a former board member for the Association for Career and Technical Education of Nebraska, and is actively involved in the TeamMates Mentoring Program. She is a member of the Nebraska Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, Rocky Mountain Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, Nebraska School Counseling Association, and National College Access Network.

Ms. Hall earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Interpersonal Communication and Marketing from Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln, Neb.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.