

Jodi Benjamin Biography

Jodi Benjamin joined EducationQuest Foundation as Chief Financial Officer in September 2024. In this role, she oversees the foundation's financial management, ensuring fiscal responsibility and long-term sustainability in alignment with its mission.

Prior to joining EducationQuest, Ms. Benjamin served as Chief Operating Officer at Midland University in Fremont. She led the finance, information technology, and human resources departments and spearheaded the strategic development of Midland University's online education programming.

Ms. Benjamin began her career in public accounting with Deloitte's assurance division before transitioning to First National Bank of Omaha, where she specialized in internal and external reporting within the credit card securitization division.

Ms. Benjamin is actively involved in her community, serving on the Board of Mosaic, mentoring through the Teammates program, and coaching youth basketball. Previously, she served as a Board Member for the Fremont Chamber of Commerce and as Committee Chair for the Chamber's Professional Development and Leadership Committee.

Ms. Benjamin holds a Bachelor's and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Midland University. She is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensed in Nebraska.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit that works to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, and outreach services for community agencies.