

Scholarship Tips

Tips for finding scholarships

- Start looking in the spring of your junior year.
- Organize scholarships in deadline order, and set aside time each week to work on scholarship essays and applications.
- If requested on the application, list activities, awards, honors classes, leadership positions, and volunteer or paid jobs. Track them using the Activities Resume at eqf.org/ActResume.
- If an application requires a letter of recommendation, give the person writing the letter sufficient notice, a specific deadline, and a copy of your Activities Resume.
- After writing an essay, ask an adult (preferably an English teacher) to review the document for spelling, grammar, and sentence structure.
- Follow all directions, and make sure the application is complete and submitted by the deadline or it will be disqualified. This video has more tips: <https://youtu.be/4MHQV3HeLOE>.
- Never pay for scholarship services! Talk to your school counselor or contact EducationQuest about the many free options available.

Where to find scholarships

- ScholarshipQuest at eqf.org/SQ. Contains more than 2,000 local and state scholarships.
 - High school counselor's office/website. Visit at least once a month during your senior year to learn about local and national awards.
 - Potential colleges. Contact colleges of interest for a list of scholarships they offer along with information about criteria, deadlines, and application procedures.
 - National scholarship search sites. Visit free sites such as:
